AN OPPORTUNITY TO SHARE GOD'S LOVE WITH OTHERS

Our vision is to make Cedarville UMC a place where people want to COME, stay to GROW, and go out to SHARE God's love with others.

As I write this article, we are watching - through our television and other electronic screens - the devastation occurring in Texas after Hurricane Harvey made landfall. Our sisters and brothers in Texas are living this horror and will continue to live it for quite some time to come.

Right now, the rain and the flooding continue. It is heartbreaking to see the stories of people who have lost everything, those who are in shelters, those who do not know what awaits them when/if they are able to return to their homes.

Another area that continues to reel from a natural disaster, on August 14, is the country of Sierra Leone. Reverend Bishop Emeritus Arnold Temple, who leads a Methodist church near Regent, said the country was mourning well over 1,000 victims. Rescue and recovery efforts continue as heavy rain brings the threat of yet another disaster there.

As people of God and as United Methodists, we can SHARE God's love with those in desperate need right now through financial assistance. Perhaps later, we can SHARE God's love through physical assistance with clean-up and restoration efforts, when mission teams are called upon to assist in the rebuilding work.

For now, anyone wishing to help can give to U.S. Disaster Response, Advance #901670 (for Texas flooding) or to International Advance #982450 to support the United Methodist response in Sierra Leone. You can go to www.umcor.org and click on a link to either of these Advance numbers to donate. Or, you can give your donation through Cedarville UM Church. 100% of your donations will go to provide disaster relief.

On Sunday October 15, 2017 Cedarville UMC will celebrate Laity Sunday. This is a Sunday in which all United Methodist churches recognize and celebrate the role of the laity (you and me) in the mission of the church. For the past 2 years we have used this as our Laity Day of Service. This year will be a little different. With a single unified worship experience that day we will celebrate the ministry that the laity bring to this great mission we call the church. There will be additional information and details in the October Crossbeams and in the bulletins. Please plan to join together with your brothers and sisters in Christ, on October 15, to worship and celebrate all that the Lord is doing in this place.

Children and Youth

Cedarville Nursery School

As we embark on a new school year you may think there would not be a great deal to share, but at Cedarville caring and doing is year round!! During these summer months our sweet school had a bit of a face lift. Myself, Melanie and my fourteen year old son came in and finished painting the walls. I was astonished at the amount of energy fourteen year old boys have!!! We were so very thankful for his help. He really did a great majority of the painting. The wonderful trustees, headed by Jere McDonald, painted all the trim upstairs. A huge undertaking!!! We cannot thank the trustees enough!!

Mrs. Taylor and her husband donated a new counter surface for our large table that we use constantly. Taylor Industries were very generous!!! You would think that would be enough but Mrs. Trish Falcone stepped in and made new curtains for us!! Thank you Mrs. Falcone!!! The school really looks adorable.

What makes it special however, is all the love that has poured into the space from so many different people. We always hear how love can change the world but so many of think that it is lacking. It isn't lacking. It's everywhere. I think we just do not take notice all the time to the small acts of love that happen around us all the time!! Team work is amazing. All of these people worked as team at different times and made something that was already beautiful truly amazing. I know our boys and girls will love it.

I just gave a tour this morning and as soon as soon as the family entered the big room they said ... " ahhh, what a beautiful space." The space is very pretty now but I really feel that people can feel the love when they come to Cedarville.

I know I feel it when I see some of the familiar faces that greet me when I am around. Shelia and Susan are two of those people!!! We just want you all to know how grateful we are to be in such a loving environment and to know that the love spreads out very far every day. I know our children will feel that love when they come this year and spread it out to places we cannot even imagine!!

I really like to start the year off with a prayer and this year I have chosen the Prayer of Saint Francis. It is very beautiful and meaningful.

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy!

O' Divine master, grant that I may not seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love.
For it is in Pardoning that we are pardoned
And it is in dying that we are born to the eternal life!!

With lots of love and gratitude,
Nancy and Melanie

Statement by Bishop Peggy Johnson on the tragic events in Charlottesville, Virginia

August 13, 2017

Our terrorism: fears within, fightings without

Our world has been rocked with many forms of terrorism in recent years. Long before the events of September 11, 2001, and ever since, we have seen an unprecedented number of bombings, mass shootings and other violence.

The world once again witnessed acts of extreme violence and rage in Charlottesville, Virginia, over the weekend. Once again, as all too often, the heinous cause is racism--in fact, racism born of a demented, demonic belief in white supremacy.

It is beyond strange and deeply disturbing when some misguided malcontents feel racially superior but also fearful; when they pose as strong and dominant to hide the inferiority and weakness of their world views that are doomed to extinction. Meanwhile, memorials to paragons of the slave-holding Confederacy disappear, as God's beloved community comes more clearly into view.

Much of the cause for acts of terror in our world--especially this weekend's racial violence in Charlottesville--is fear-induced rage: fear of the "other," fear of someone taking away something we value, or fear of false, perceived threats. Often, it's fear of losing something that is already lost--indeed, something born of human hate and the enemy's lies that was lost from the beginning.

Such fear and rage within gives birth to terrorism without. And this outgrowth of animus comes in overt acts of violence but also in subversive acts or verbal and attitudinal assaults.

I see it all the time, even in the church when people decide for whatever reason that certain people or certain beliefs are not to their way of thinking. The result is a call for righteous indignation, insults, rejection, division and strife.

The Lord shakes his head at our church, the Body of Christ, whose many different parts are God's divine plan for accomplishing the mission of the church most effectively. We are called to work together in love and humility; but instead, some parts of the body are calling out other parts of the body because of fear. And the verbal violence and schism are not far behind.

As I John 4:18 reminds us, "There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear." Our mission needs to be to teach and model for the world the perfect love of Christ that casts out fear: fear of the "other," fear of want, the fear, pride and ignorance of having to have our own way at any price.

We must celebrate and find ways to enhance our marvelous diversity. This is slow and heart-searching, heart-changing work. The "terrorism within" us is deep-seated and can only be cleansed by the renewing power of the Holy Spirit.

During the aftermath of this most recent scene of horror and deadly violence in Charlottesville, I call the church to prayer and witness. I call us to inscribe on our hearts and in our thoughts and actions the words of the Rev. Carolyn Gillette's song: "God, with Joy We Look Around Us"

*God, with joy we look around us
at your world's diversity.
Folk of every kind surround us
and you call your church to see.
All are made in your own
image, all are people whom you
love.*

*In the times we've hurt each other, Lord, we've hurt the ones
you bless.
Hating sister, cursing brother,
we've denied what you express.
All are made in your own
image, all are people whom you
love.*

*God, you sent a Savior to us,
breaking walls that would divide.
By your Spirit now work through us as we witness side by side.
All are made in your own
image, all are people whom you
love.*

Thank You

Greetings to All!

Sending Blessings. We're Okay. Now in the 90's! We give "thanks" each day for our health. Thanks to Pastor Sherry for her writing of song, "Hymn of Promise" – our favorite one. Now have our 10th great-grandchild! May each day be a great one.

Janice & Harry Hess

A big thank you to everyone who donated something for the cake walk and to everyone who walked the walk at the church picnic in August. It was a lot of fun and we raised $57 in donations for Youth Missions.

From Good Works (Cedarville's Father's Day Project)

Dear Rev. Lantz and Cedarville UM Church:

We are so grateful for your recent gift of $613 given to further the work of Good Works. Your practical help enables us to make a difference in the lives of the disadvantaged homeowners we have the privilege of serving. We truly appreciate your willingness to partner with us in such a meaningful way.

Good Works Summer Youth Work Camps dominated June, July and August. The sheer number of people involved in planning and executing these camps including Good Works staff, volunteer leaders, youth groups and adult chaperones, homeowners and supporting organizations like Coatesville Bible Fellowship Church, Cornerstone Fellowship Church and the YMCA contribute to the grand scale of the operation. But, the impact of Work Camp is uniquely personal for those involved. Carolyn, one of our Work Camp homeowners was clearly touched by the dedication of the volunteers when she tearfully shared, "No one has ever cared for me like this group of strangers. Now, they are family to me. I don't want to see them leave!" The volunteers are similarly impacted. Amy said, "The best part of camp was hearing our homeowner say, "My house looks good now." And, Tony shared: "This was my third trip with Good Works but it was like no other. God allowed me to learn so much this week. My faith in God and myself grew immensely." Several teams have already committed to returning in 2018. If you ever wonder whether your financial gifts make a difference, I can assure you that the impact is far greater than you know. Your help make programs like our Summer Youth Work Camp possible. On behalf of our homeowners and those who volunteer their time and talent – Thank you!

Many thanks to our faithful friends at Cedarville United Methodist!

Executive Director*

From: Re-Creation

Dear Cedarville UMC,

Thank you for hosting the group in Pottstown on Sunday, August 13th, and allowing us to share our programs, "Happy!" and "Believe" with your congregation and community.

This year Re-Creation marks more than 40 years of service to the men and women receiving long-term care in the VA Health Care system. Your generous contributions through the church offering will help to further that personal mission to America's heroes!

We enjoyed visiting with you and thank everyone involved for their efforts in the arrangements for the programs and meals. Everyone was so welcoming and gracious.

We know this program would not be possible without YOU! And we look forward to seeing you again soon!

Jim Muller, Director

From the 2017 Academy for Laity

Dear Rev. Lantz and Cedarville UMC Congregation,

On behalf of the Laity Academy Planning Committee, instructors, and attendees of the 2017 Academy for Laity, we wish to extend a heartfelt thank you to Cedarville UMC.

It was extremely evident that the Lord is alive and active in the hearts of all who helped during Laity Academy weekend. We were happily overwhelmed by the continual accolades about the hospitality, and warmth extended to everyone present. Additionally, moving the Academy back into a church setting enhanced the serenity and spirituality for fellowship, learning, and worship.

We could not have asked for a more gracious host: from the Cedarville UMC trustees, administrative staff, sexton, music and AV support, and shuttle service; to the "superheroes" in the kitchen and the entire congregation attending the 11:00 service.

This weekend was dedicated to educating our EPA Conference Christ Servant Ministers and Certified Lay Ministers, and encouraging them to keep "Stepping Up and Stepping Out". And it is very clear to all who were present that Cedarville UMC has "Embraced the Journey" of Christian service and love.

With thankfulness and blessings,
The Planning Committee of the 2017 Academy for Laity.

A Walter Mouse Devotional

Psalm 7:10...My shield is God Most High...

Bill does a lot of work on the word processor, since he's always typing up my stuff, bless him! (It takes me forever to type anything because I'm so small. I have to hit each key with one front foot. And then sometimes when I reach up to hit the "Q" or the "P", I lean on the space bar too...and well, you can see how awkward it gets!) When he typed this scripture into the computer, it didn't recognize "Most High" and ran that squiggly green line under both words. (It wanted to change it into "Highest.") A lot of people are like that: they don't recognize the "Most High", either. They go through life without His presence and provision, minus His life-giving relationship. How sad! The believing heart recognizes God Most High and lives forever in the love He provides.
